GLENDALE MAN SENTENCED FOR USING ATM CARDS SKIMMED FROM DOLLAR TREE STORES -ONE MORE SUSPECT SOUGHT

SACRAMENTO--United States Attorney McGregor W. Scott announced today that PARKEV KRMOIAN, 45, of Glendale, California, was sentenced by United States District Judge D. Lowell Jensen to 41 months imprisonment, to be followed by three years of supervised release. He was also ordered to pay restitution for $258,612.23 in fraudulent ATM withdrawals linked to card data skimmed from transactions at Dollar Tree stores in the Central Valley and Oregon. KRMOIAN previously pleaded guilty to bank fraud for using skimmed ATM cards to withdraw funds from a bank in Glendale, California.

This case is the product of a joint investigation by the Glendale Police Department and the U.S. Secret Service.

According to Assistant United States Attorney Matthew D. Segal, who prosecuted the case, law enforcement agents seized $50,038 at the time of KRMOIAN's arrest, consisting of $48,700 in $20 bills recovered from his residence, and an additional $1,338 on his person.

The Glendale Police Department and the U.S. Secret Service are seeking information on the individual depicted below who was photographed making fraudulent withdrawals using ATM card data compromised at the same time. Anyone with such information should contact U.S. Secret Service Special Agent Kelly Shintaku at (916) 325-5481.
